Broadway in the Park 2015

A MESSAGE FROM PAUL GARMAN EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR / PRODUCER

Welcome to our 17th annual Broadway in the Park! This incredible fundraiser would not happen every year without the dedication of over 150 volunteers who give of their time and talent to create a successful event. We especially want to thank Event Co-chairs, Marnos Lelesi and Lisa Cochrane and the wonderful Broadway in the Park Committee, as well as our outstanding volunteers listed later in the program. We also want to acknowledge our table sponsors and underwriters, whose contributions lay the foundation on which to build a successful event.

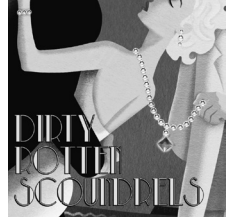

A special thank you to the members of Musical Theatre West Footlighters for hosting the VIP Party and the Musical Theatre West Guild who work the event, as well as the members of the Musical Theatre West Board of Directors and Board of Trustees who help obtain and underwrite the live and silent auction items. And we certainly couldn't raise the money we do without our "Fabulous Four" organizing the silent auction. Heartfelt thanks to Kathy Biggs, Susan Nathon, Jayni Rhoads and Debbie Whitaker.

Also a special thank you goes to the wonderful MTW staff and technical crew whose expertise help produce this evening. A huge thanks to all of tonight's performers, Cindy and Tam of Striking Elegance and Jim Choura, Dan D'sa and Devin Wright of Grand Food & Beverage, who each year so generously help underwrite Broadway in the Park, allowing us to raise more money for our Education and Outreach Programs.

Most of all, we want to express our deep appreciation to each of you for attending tonight's event. We hope you enjoy the evening and look forward to seeing you next year!

SILENT AUCTION

RULES AND REGULATIONS

When you check in you will receive a sheet of labels pre-printed with your NAME and BID NUMBER. To bid on an item, place the sticker on the bid sheet, written bids will not be accepted on silent auction items.

ALL SALES ARE FINAL. YOUR BID, ORAL OR WRITTEN, CONSTITUTES A LEGAL AND BINDING CONTRACT. No item will be sold for less than its minimum bid; any bid which does not exceed the previous bid by at least the minimum increment will be considered invalid. Indecipherable bids will not be honored. If any dispute arises after the sale, Musical Theatre West's sale record shall be conclusive.

All items are sold "as is." Musical Theatre West makes no warranties, assumptions of liability or representation of any kind with respect to any items, trips or services described in this catalogue and sold at the auction. Musical Theatre West reserves the right to withdraw and/or substitute at comparable value any property at any time before actual sale.

Payment in full on August 8, 2015 is mandatory. Failure to do so will forfeit to the next highest bidder. If a winning bidder must leave before the close of the auction, payment arrangements must be made with Musical Theatre West. After the close of the auction, runners will bring winning bid sheets to your table and collect payment at that time. Guests may pre-register their credit card numbers for faster checkout. Musical Theatre West accepts cash, checks, Visa, MasterCard, American Express and Discover.

Successful bidders must claim their purchases by presenting a "PAID" receipt at the Item Display table. If the successful bidder is unavailable to remove his/her purchases the evening of the Event, storage and delivery will be at the bidder's sole expense.

If Musical Theatre West is prevented by fire, theft or any other reason whatsoever from delivering any property to the successful bidder, Musical Theatre West's liability shall be limited to the sum actually paid by the successful bidder.

It shall be the responsibility of the successful bidder of services to contact the donor to arrange the time and place of delivery.

Parties: Reservations for the use of homes, condominiums and private catering must be mutually arranged between donor and successful bidder unless otherwise specified. The successful bidder of the use of a private home, condominium or club may not sell or give the privilege to a third party without written permission of the donor. Negotiations for party dates and all details associated with the planning and execution of the parties sold at Auction will reside with those giving the party and those who purchase the party. Musical Theatre West will not be held responsible for refunds of any nature due to, or as a result of, failure of all parties involved to achieve an agreed upon party date. All monies shall remain a donation to Musical Theatre West.

All gift certificates and services must be redeemed by the date specified on the auctioned item. Unless otherwise indicated, all gift certificates will expire on August 1, 2016.

Successful bidders should retain the auction contract for their records. Fair Market Values listed on the contract are estimated by the donor, where available, and are not guaranteed by Musical Theatre West. Please consult your tax advisor.

Auction Quick-Check System: When you check in at the event, you will have the opportunity to register your credit card information with Musical Theatre West staff. If you make no purchases during the evening, your credit card information will be destroyed.

COMMITTEE

Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world; indeed, it's the only thing that ever has. - Margaret Mead

Our nation will succeed or fail to the degree that all of us - citizens and business alike - are active participants in building strong, sustainable and enriching communities. - Arnold Hiatt

Musical Theatre West owes a debt of gratitude to those who spend the better part of a year planning this event, obtaining auction items, gathering prospects to invite, and physically setting up the evening that we hope you've all enjoyed.

In addition, the Musical Theatre West staff spends many months making Broadway in the Park appear to be an effortless, perfect evening under the stars and so some special thanks are due there as well. Thanks to Gloria Nelson, who tackled the event as the committee liaison and did a Herculean job coordinating such varied aspects from contracts with the city to reservations and data entry into our computer system. And a very special thank you to Katie Marshall who took over in Gloria's absence. To Michael Betts and the box office staff for assisting with last minute details. And to our interns, Erica Schafer and Catherine Yount and Administrative Assistants Alex Lombardo and Bren Johnson, who assisted in so many ways.

Musical Theatre West is committed to providing the highest quality in educational opportunities and exposure to the arts for children in the communities we serve. MTW reaches children and teens throughout Long Beach as well as the greater Los Angeles and Orange County communities and most programs are offered FREE OF CHARGE. With the support of the MTW Guild, Footlighters, as well as government, foundation and generous individual support, any students or groups who suffer financial hardship have access to scholarships in order to participate in MTW's education and outreach activities. MTW's education and outreach initiatives serve nearly 17,000 school children annually, helping to fill the critical void in arts education in our schools.

Education & Outreach Programs:

2014-15 Season Student Matinees – Two performances for each production of Big Fish, South Pacific, Les Misérables and Singin' in the Rain

2014-15 Residency – MTW's production of Peter Pan with the 1st through 5th grade students of Minnie Gant – February 27-March 1, 2015 at the University Theater

Footlighters Scholarship Competition – For High School Students – Winter 2015 Performance – March 21, 2015 at the Sycamore Center

We Tell Their Story – MTW's Summer Outreach Tour – Summer 2015

Summer Youth Conservatory – Two back-to-back Intensives for Ages 8-18 – Summer 2015

We Tell Their Story – MTW's In-School Assembly Program – Fall 2015

EDUCATION AND OUTREACH PROGRAMS

Since 1991, MTW's Education and Outreach Program has held special weekday performances to introduce children to live musical theatre. We are pleased to say that to date over 165,000 kids have attended these performances.

Over the last six years MTW has also gone into the schools with specially-written assemblies that demonstrate both the educational and entertainment value of musical theatre.

With the current cuts in arts education in the schools, these experiences may be their only exposure to live musical theatre, as well as their only field trip during the year. Judging by the expressions on their faces and their interactions with the cast, it's an experience they won't soon forget!

Since the inception of the program 11 years ago, our Footlighters have awarded over $56,000 in scholarships to deserving local students. We are particularly honored that since the inauguration of the NHSMT Awards in New York City 5 years ago, MTW Scholarship Winners have won 3 out of the 5 years.

Thanks to your support, MTW has been able to expand its conservatories and workshops and to help Wilson High School reinvigorate their drama program, helping produce their first musical in ten years. We look forward to continuing these programs in the coming years.

Your participation in Broadway in the Park helps ensure that Musical Theatre West can reach the hearts and minds of young children throughout the region with the joy and magic of live musical theatre. On behalf of all of the students whose lives are enriched through these programs, we offer our heartfelt thanks for your support.

MUSICAL THEATRE WEST

SEASON

Southern California's Premier Musical Theatre Company

Paul Garman, Executive Director/Producer

SOMETHING'S COMING...SOMETHING GOOD.

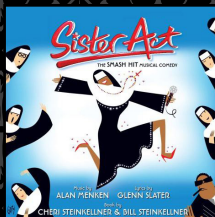

MY FAIR LADY • OCTOBER 23 - NOVEMBER 8, 2015

Why can't the English?...Professor Henry Higgins transforms Cockney guttersnipe Eliza Doolittle into a proper English lady in the Lerner and Loewe classic based on Shaw's Pygmalion. Wouldn't It Be Lovely?, Get Me To The Church On Time, The Rain In Spain and more are part of this delectable score from Broadway's Golden Age.

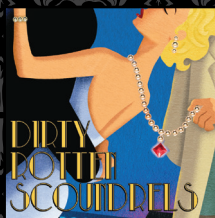

WEST SIDE STORY • FEBRUARY 12 - 28, 2016

Tonight, tonight...Based on Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet, Bernstein, Sondheim and Laurents reset the star-crossed lovers into two feuding gangs in New York City during the 1950s. America, Something's Coming, Tonight and Somewhere are featured in this glorious, romantic and ultimately tragic tale.

SISTER ACT • APRIL 8 - 24, 2016

A woman hiding in a convent helps her fellow sisters find their voices as she rediscovers her own. Based on the 1992 film with original music by TONY and 8-time Oscar winner Alan Menken (Newsies, Beauty and the Beast), this uplifting musical was nominated for 5 TONY Awards including Best Musical. Filled with powerful gospel music, outrageous dancing and a truly moving story that will leave audiences breathless.

DIRTY ROTTEN SCOUNDRELS • JULY 8 - 24, 2016

The con is on! From the composer/lyricist of The Full Monty comes this hilarious, and often risqué musical based on the Steve Martin and Michael Caine film. Two con artists working on the French Riviera decide that the first to swindle "America's Soap Queen" out of $50,000 can stay in town and the loser has to beat feet. RECOMMENDED FOR MATURE AUDIENCES.

2015-2016 SEASON HONORARY PRODUCERS
The Ackerman Family / Evalyn M. Bauer Foundation
Ken & Dottie Reiner • Don & Marlene Temple
